

Ms. Sarah Abou Najem

Ms. Sarah Abou Najem from Modern University for Business & Science (MUBS) will meet students to share her insights on Lebanese culture.

„If we had to describe my country, it would be 'a beautiful mess', 'organized chaos', 'original diversity' or simply a 'beautiful homeland.' In a customized lecture, we will come to identify Lebanon, the Middle Eastern country, which has always been known for its function in joining western life and oriental styles. Moreover, we will get introduced to Lebanon with its mixture of citizens, traditions, education and culture.”
